Become a Volunteer

St. Joseph Shelter and Mission Benedict are looking for volunteers to lend their time and talent serving our community in a variety of ways:

- Homework Helper - assist children living in the shelter with developing and improving academic skills
- Volunteer Parent Aid/Family Friend - engage with families to provide support and guidance with everything from child development to social connections that build stability and resilience
- Greeter - greet individuals entering Mission Benedict and speak with them while they wait for their turn to shop
- Sorter - sort and stock donations that come to Mission Benedict; organize clothes and household items
- Repacker - repack food items in accordance to current need and MPFS standards
- Sampler - prepare and share sample food with individuals at Mission Benedict
