

DCP Career Opportunities Introduced

The Adult Services Regional Directors are pleased to announce a new career advancement opportunity for direct care staff members who demonstrate a commitment to excellence in caring for those we serve. Beginning in July 2017, those DCP team members that demonstrate advanced competencies related to outstanding care, training and outcomes, may qualify to advance within the new Direct Care Compensation Model.

Sanctuary Theme of the Month - Social Learning

Social learning encourages us to recognize that every behavior has meaning and reminds us not to take perceived slights personally. Instead of becoming frustrated or hurt, social learning calls us to be open with one another, share information, and work together through collaborative thinking and problem solving.

One way that Sanctuary helps us with social learning and open communication is through the use of red flag meetings. A red flag meeting is a team meeting called in response to a crisis or a collective disturbance.

FHI, Good360 and United Way: Retail Overstock Meets Family Needs

On "Good360 Marketplace" days, Fostering Hope Initiative staff can find just about anything for the families they serve, from brand new bedding, to pots and pans, to a plush elephant rocking horse among the piles of donations covering the tables at United Way's Salem office.

Good360 is a national retail goods redistribution program coordinated locally by the United Way of the Mid-Willamette Valley. Good360 works with major retailers such as Pottery Barn, Home Depot and Tuesday Morning to secure overstock retail donations.

Dragon Boat Paddlers Needed

Are you interested in getting some exercise and enjoying time on the Willamette River? Join the local World Beat Dragon Boat Paddlers Club! The club paddles each year at the World Beat Festival, and many paddlers go on to compete in other races in other cities during the summer and fall. If you are interested in becoming a paddler for this year's World Beat Festival race on June 24th, contact Stephanie Stoker at sstoker@goisn.org.

Freecycle - Give what you can, take what you need

Freecycle is a program that connects people with an outlet to share items with employees, peers, foster parents and community members. Freecycle is a program for everyone - give what you can, take what you need. If you have an item you want to share, or an item you or someone you know has a need for, please contact freecycle@ccswv.org.
